AGRICULTURAL LANDS

On the Magdalena and Altar Rivers, Sonora

Stock and Cattle Ranches in the Districts of Magdalena and Altar

The district watered by the Magdalena River is the best in Sonora; the greatest water shed, the greatest rainfall, and unquestionably the best climate, with an average elevation of 3000 feet. Corn is summer and grain in winter, and the best alfalfa district in Sonora.

200,000 ACRES of bottom land on the Magdalena River with ample flood waters, and pumping water at very shallow depth, with abundant mesquite fuel.

Less than 20% of the valley in cultivation today. Main trunk line railway traverses the valley. The mesa lands constitute the best grazing lands in Sonora. No tick.

Agricultural bottom lands from $5.00 to $25.00. Grazing land with ample water for stock, $1.00 to $1.50.

LOCAL NEWS.

More rain, here, there and everywhere, in Arizona and northern Sonora.

The New National Hotel is crowded these days and Miss Mamie is as busy as a hen with a dozen chicks.

A large number of federal Mexican soldiers are being sent to Naco and Cananea, from the southern part of Sonora.

W. C. Budge, secretary of the Board of Trade, has been appointed city assessor, by the City Council, at their last meeting.

The Santa Cruz County Constitutional Democratic Club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the Wise building on Morley avenue.

Oil Inspector C. Navarro, who makes his headquarters at Magdalena, Sonora, spent a couple days here this week on government business.

One of these days our Uncle Sam will get tired of having Mexican revolutionists kick our citizens around, then something will happen, in a hurry.

Now the great Southern Pacific of Mexico is being "kicked around" by the rebels, to the tune of many thousand dollars, in the states of Sonora and Sinaloa.

Yesterday Mr. Cox of Cochise county crossed at this port a big bunch of cattle which were driven from the Saric country. The stock is being loaded today at Calabasas.

Train service between San Blas and Sinaloa is at a standstill, according to advices received here Thursday, on account of the activity of the rebels in that section.

Grover Marsteller is back from his vacation spent at Bisbee and vicinity, where he enjoyed a bear hunt, and is again at his desk in The First National Bank of Nogales.

The masquerade ball last night at the Santa Cruz Club was a joyous affair being largely attended by members of the club and their friends. Everybody had a fine time.

This morning Mrs. Tom Pereira and Mrs. Ed. Burton left for Ray, Arizona, having been called there on account of the illness of Tom Pereira, the printer, husband and sister of the ladies.

Bridges burned, trains fired into and wrecked, resulting in great loss of life and property, is the latest true reports from points in Sonora and Sinaloa, on the line of the Southern Pacific of Mexico.

This morning Express Messenger Homer Mapes of this city, who was reported seriously injured in last Thursday's wreck, south of Empalme, arrived in the city. Mr. Mapes was not badly injured.

A lot of rurales are now stationed at Nogales, Sonora. They recently arrived from the state of Sinaloa, and attracted a great deal of attention with their big hats and "loud" blankets.

Karns Bros are receiving the pipe for the municipal water system for which they have the contract. Work is progressing nicely under the personal supervision of Manager Harry Karns, who is a twenty-century hustler.

Fred C. Emery, president of the La Cobia Mining Company, the splendid copper properties of which are located west of Noria about a dozen miles, came up from La Cobia yesterday morning, to spend a few days here with his family.

Mrs. J. D. Underwood is a guest at the Montezuma hotel. Dr. and Mrs. Underwood are well known here and in Sonora, where they resided a number of years ago, when Dr. Underwood was in charge of a big mining property near Santa Ana.

Frank Olsen, one of the original owners of the Pride of the West mines at Washington Camp now owned by George Westinghouse, is a visitor in the city from his mines in the Patagonias. Frank is one of the best prospectors in the country, and knows a good thing when he sees it.

Mrs. Walton of Minas Prietas mother of Tom Berch, of this city, has purchased the Curtis ranch situated about four miles east of Nogales, and is arranging to erect a couple of nice large adobe houses and otherwise improve the place.

J. G. Stubbs, general freight agent, and E. W. Clapp, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters at Tucson, and Assistant Superintendent Kruttschnitt have been here a couple of days on a visit or inspection of the company's property.

After two weeks profitably and pleasantly spent in Kansas City, Mr. I. E. Bowers, the Noria, Sonora mining man and land owner, returned to Nogales Wednesday night and Thursday night continued south to his property. Mrs. Bowers on account of the unsettled condition in Sonora, remained in the city, a guest at the National hotel.

Judge M. Marsteller returned last Sunday night from a month, delightfully spent in Washington and dear old Virginia—his native state—where he had not been for seventeen years. Naturally Judge Marsteller noted many changes at his old home and at the national Capital, where he met many old friends and acquaintances of his boy-hood days.

Yesterday Jeff Rountree and Fred. Moore came up from the Altar district where Mr. Rountree is drilling for artesian water on the million-acre tract of land owned by a big Texas syndicate represented by J. M. McCord of this city. After transacting their business here the boys will go to Santa Ana, a station on the Sonora railroad, thence by auto to camp.

Friends of Jack Woodrum, the veteran passenger conductor on the Southern Pacific of Mexico, who runs out of Guaymas, south, will be pleased to learn that he was not injured in the wreck of last Thursday forenoon, when train No. 2 went through a bridge and the engineer and fireman were killed. Conductor Woodrum was in the Pullman at the time and escaped injury.

This week in the House Mr. W. M. Whipple of Greenlee county presented a bill which fixes the salary of chairman of boards of supervisors in all counties at $100 per month and members at $75.00 per month. The bill further provides that on the first Monday in each even numbered year the supervisors in the various counties shall meet and fix the salaries of all county and precinct officers.

John Henderson, Sr., one of the best known mining men in the west, who at one time owned one of the great gold mines at Minas Prietas, Sonora, arrived in the city last night from Pasadena, California, and will today go out to his mining property in the Altar district, where his son John has for several months been developing a good copper prospect. He is accompanied by his son Alex, who has for several years past been attending college in California.

This week the local agent of the Three C. (Crecent Copper Company) of which a number of Nogales business men are interested financially, received sufficient funds from the eastern office with which to liquidate all outstanding bills against the company, and it is said that a big contract will soon be let to continue developing the property in Washington mining district on the west slope of the Patagonia mountains. Supervisor A. L. Peck and city councilman A. A. Doherty each own a large block of Three C stock.

W. S. Sultan, consulting engineer and personal representative of N. L. Amster, the Globe millionaire who last week purchased the great Three-R group of copper-silver mines situated in the Patagonia mountains a short distance from Patagonia, mention of which was made in THE BORDER VIDEETTE last week, spent Monday in Nogales transacting business. Mr. Sultan reported everything at the mine progressing nicely, and the future of the big bonanza and the Patagonia district one of great promise. It is said that Richardson and Crepin soon after they closed their deal with Mr. Amster, received an offer of $1,000,000 for the Three-R. Just the same, the lucky gentlemen realized a handsome fortune from the sale of their mine and all parties concerned, are well pleased.

Next week Judge Frank J. Duffy will go to Phoenix to sit as a supreme judge in a number of cases to be heard before the Supreme Court, wherein the supreme judges-elect are disqualified. In selecting Judge Duffy from among all the superior judges in the state to fill the high position of supreme judge, Governor Hunt has paid Judge Duffy and Santa Cruz County a high compliment.

W. G. Bowman, local agent for the Southern Pacific has been notified that the work of remodeling the depot and building a big new freight house on the company's property in front of the court house, will soon be commenced and pushed to completion as fast as possible. The present quarters now used as a freight house will be occupied by the U. S. customs house officials, just as soon as the change is made.

Charley Eames, the mining engineer, after a successful business visit to California, returned Thursday night and continued on to Magdalena, Sonora, near where his mining property is located. It is said that Mr. Eames while on the coast sold his San Antonio mines to California capitalists for $150,000. U. S. cy., receiving a substantial payment down. The property is near the Espiritu silver bonanza owned by Mr. A. C. Bernard and Joe Scott, which has also been bonded for a large sum of money.

SONORA REBELS BUSY.

One Passenger Train Shot Into and Another Wrecked.

For the first time in the history of the Southern Pacific of Mexico Railroad, a passenger train was fired into last Wednesday afternoon and one passenger was instantly killed and two others badly wounded, by murderous rebels, who immediately after the train disappeared with its dead and wounded, proceeded to cut the telegraph wires, and set fire to a bridge through which passenger train No. 2 plunged Thursday forenoon killing Engineer George Rhew, an American, and his fireman, a Mexican, and badly wounding Express Messenger Homer Mapes of this city and several others on the train.

Vice President Charles Hine of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, who was a passenger on the train fired into, arrived in Nogales Thursday morning apparently well pleased to again be back in dear old U. S. A. Major Hine is an ex-soldier and a brave man. He says he is always willing to go where duty calls him, but he hopes the call from Mexico will not be very loud until after the war is over. There is not much enjoyment traveling along the West Coast just now when one is expecting every minute to be shot or dithed.

According to Express Messenger E. L. Chalfant, who with Conductor Jack Woodrum came mighty near being shot, the rebels raked the entire train from engine to Pullman. When the first bullet passed through the cab window, Engineer Rhew, who was killed in Thursday's wreck, just "reached over and pulled 'er" into the corner, then ducked." Chalfant and Woodrum were in the express car when the shooting commenced. They too "ducked" in the nick of time and remained "ducked" until the train got many miles from the scene of the shooting.

Major Hine who had been a week in the south country, said:

The attack was made Wednesday evening at 5:10 o'clock while train No. 1 was running at a rate of thirty miles an hour between kilometers 49 and 50, south of Guaymas. The train was fired on by 15 or 20 well armed men, said to be Yaquis, stationed in a line near the telegraph poles on the west side of the track. Forty or fifty shots were fired, mainly directed toward the second class coach, in which there were three casualties.

Antonio Lopez, a rancher at Bacum, aged 65, was shot through the body and killed. Ventura Alcaraz, aged 40, from the state of Michoacan received a flesh wound in the upper right arm, and Dolores Angulo, a woman of 45 years of age from Cocorit near Esperanza, was shot twice, once in the right breast and once on the right side of the head.

Thursday forenoon at 10:35 o'clock the south bound passenger train ran into a burned bridge at a point about 50 kilometers south of Empalme and engineer Rhew and the fireman were both killed, the conductor, express messenger and mail clerks were injured. The Pullman and first class coach remained on the rails. It is said that the engine was totally destroyed. A wrecking outfit with men, materials and doctors was immediately started south from Empalme. The wire to the south was reopened Thursday, and notice was received that a bridge just north of Culiacan was burned Wednesday afternoon by the rebels who the same afternoon destroyed bridge 509A for the second time since the outbreak of the present revolution.

On Thursday Superintendent Brown at Empalme made the following report to his company:

"Track walkers were stopped at Kilometer 41 this morning by Yaquis who took a portion of their clothes and all flags and lanterns and did not permit them to go further. They advised engineer of train No. 2 to this effect. We are just in receipt of a telegram from the conductor who advises that the burned bridge is at kilometer 55 instead of at 50 as originally reported. The number is not known on account of the bridge board having been destroyed. It is probably bridge 54A.

It is our belief that the underpinning was burned out while the gravel deck may have presented a good appearance, since the view is obstructed at that point."

"No passengers were injured so far as know. The people are very much excited and want troops at once. There are few firearms on the trains and the guards have been thrown out."

"I have wired the governor to give us soldiers from Guaymas and have also called on the captain at this point to see if he can give us soldiers to go out with the wrecker. Will keep you advised as we obtain further information. Have sent crew and engine from Corral to Cumuripa to pick up bridge gang to assist in clearing wreck and making repairs."

Stockholders Well Pleased.

After spending two days at the mines in the Magdalena district, Sonora, owned by the Yaqui River Consolidated Gold & Copper Company, Frank Reagan returned to Nogales yesterday morning accompanied by a large party of old-time Texas friends who are interested in the company of which he is a director and large stockholder.

Everyone of the gentlemen expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the mine and the manner in which it is being managed by Lee Reagan, and said the property is bigger and better than they had been told it was before they left the Lone Star state.

Tomorrow Mr. Reagan will return to the mine, where a big lot of work is being prosecuted under Manager Lee Reagan's personal supervision.

Those in the party from Texas, including President G. W. Hazelwood, Vice-President Mart Adams and Consulting Engineer John A. Rice, were J. E. Cope, J. T. McKee, W. H. Mansfield, C. T. Cox, Sam Keely, Ans Hazelwood, J. R. Hale.

Yesterday morning the gentlemen departed for home taking with them many samples of beautiful high-grade gold-silver ore, some of which will assay better than fourteen ounces gold and several hundred ounces silver to the ton.

The property was formerly owned by Henry Stewart of this city. It looks good.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to return my most heartfelt thanks to all of those good friends in Nogales who so kindly assisted me in my recent sad bereavement. I shall never forget their great kindness.

Very respectfully,
O. F. ASHBURN.

Warning to the Public

Certain parties have been attempting, as per publication, to negotiate for a fraction of Huamuchil ranch, better known as Cranz lands, adjoining the Town of Potom on the Yaqui River Sonora, Mexico.

The Yaqui River Land and Irrigation Company holds perfect title and is in possession of said lands.
